I have reviewed all the evidence of the killing of my fellow English person.

Overdose symptoms may include drowsiness, vomiting, agitation, aggression, confusion, tremors, fast or slow heart rate, seizure (convulsions), trouble breathing, feeling light-headed, or fainting.

This crosses the line of 'competition' into something else.