I did pay to get one of the 12 seats available on a 747, but there were some negatives. Every tattoo, doesn't matter where on the body it is, is going to start to itch after about a week or even sooner. Soon after, I was a part of Whole Foods, where I became an industry leader, guiding over 30 stores all over the North East. Register, one for data entry, one for drive thru, and the pharmacist checking what is probably hundreds of orders.
